DANIEL SCOTT

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD BAHA MAR

Daniel Scott serves as Managing Director of Rosewood Baha Mar, where he oversees all aspects of the resort's operations, ensuring every guest experience reflects Rosewood's philosophy of relationship hospitality, sense of place, and unparalleled service. He also continues to serve as Regional Vice President for Rosewood Hotels & Resorts, providing strategic operational leadership across The Carlyle, A Rosewood Hotel, Rosewood Washington, D.C., and Kona Village, A Rosewood Resort.

Since joining Rosewood Hotels & Resorts in 2003, Daniel has held a series of senior leadership roles across the portfolio. He most recently served as Managing Director of Kona Village, A Rosewood Resort, where he led the celebrated reopening of the iconic Hawaiian retreat, overseeing its acclaimed dining, Asaya Spa wellness offerings, and immersive cultural programming that honors the rich heritage of Hawai‘i Island. Prior to that, as Managing Director of Rosewood Mayakoba from 2014 to 2024, he established the resort as one of Mexico's premier luxury destinations. His extensive experience also includes leading the successful reopenings of Rosewood Little Dix Bay and Le Guanahani, as well as serving in operational leadership at Rosewood Bermuda.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Daniel co-founded Centro Educativo K'iin Beh in 2015, a bilingual nonprofit school serving underserved communities in Playa del Carmen. As President, he has helped guide the education of more than 450 children from kindergarten through high school, fostering strong values, expanding educational opportunities, and empowering the next generation of community leaders.
