ANDREW MOORE

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD PHNOM PENH

Andrew Moore is the Managing Director of Rosewood Phnom Penh, bringing more than two decades of international luxury hospitality experience across Europe and Asia. Since joining the property in June 2026, he has led the hotel's continued commitment to excellence, innovation, and personalized guest experiences while strengthening its position as one of Southeast Asia's premier luxury destinations.

Before joining Rosewood Phnom Penh, Andrew successfully led the pre-opening and launch of Waldorf Astoria Osaka, one of Japan's most anticipated luxury hotel openings. Earlier, he served as General Manager of Conrad Dublin, where he was recognized as Hilton's General Manager of the Year in 2023. His extensive career also includes senior leadership roles at Conrad Seoul, Hilton Beijing, and Hilton Belfast, where he developed deep expertise in operations, commercial strategy, sales and marketing, revenue management, and people leadership.

Before transitioning into general management, Andrew spent nearly a decade in commercial leadership positions, driving business development, revenue growth, and commercial performance for luxury hospitality brands across multiple international markets.

At Rosewood Phnom Penh, Andrew champions Rosewood Hotels & Resorts' philosophy of Relationship Hospitality, focusing on creating meaningful guest experiences, empowering associates, and celebrating Cambodia's rich culture and talent. His vision is to elevate the hotel's reputation further while showcasing Phnom Penh as a world-class luxury destination and fostering an environment where associates are empowered to deliver exceptional, intuitive hospitality.
