AN ANCIENT ESTATE ROOTED IN LEGACY

CASTIGLION DEL BOSCO

A ROSEWOOD HOTEL

Framed by the rolling hills of Val d'Orcia, Castiglion del Bosco is a 5,000-acre estate in Montalcino, founded in the 1100s and restored by the Ferragamo family with deep respect for its history and soul. At its heart lies a medieval borgo - a place where heritage breathes quietly through stone, light and landscape. Massimo and Chiara Ferragamo envisioned not a destination but a home, shaped its essence piece by piece, traveling across Italy to source antiques and restoring each object with care and purpose.

The 12th-century castle still crowns the estate, while the chapel guards a 14th-century fresco by Pietro Lorenzetti. Beyond the borgo, trails weave through woodlands, ruins and vineyards.

Among its hidden treasures, a historic Brunello di Montalcino winery and  a private golf course designed by legend Tom Weiskopf. Here, the land takes the lead and flavors are celebrated in the Michelin-starred restaurant or in the Osteria, once the home of the village priest.

This is a place where Tuscany still breathes - and where guests become part of its unfolding story.

Welcome to Castiglion del Bosco - where Tuscany welcomes you home.
