ROSEWOOD

TRACY STOLTZ

MANAGING DIRECTOR, KONA VILLAGE, A ROSEWOOD RESORT

Tracy Stoltz serves as Managing Director of Kona Village, A Rosewood Resort, where she oversees all aspects of the resort's operations and guides its continued evolution as one of Hawai‘i's most distinctive luxury destinations.

Prior to joining Kona Village, Tracy served as General Manager of The Hythe, a Luxury Collection Resort in Vail, Colorado. Throughout her career, she has held senior leadership roles with Marriott International and Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, with experience spanning properties across North America, the Caribbean, and the Bahamas. As Owner Liaison at Point Grace in the Turks and Caicos Islands, she helped guide the property to earn recognition as the World Travel Awards' Caribbean's Leading Boutique Hotel, as well as both AAA Five Diamond and Forbes Five-Star distinctions.

Tracy's longstanding connection to Hawai`i includes leadership roles at The Royal Hawaiian, Sheraton Waikiki Resort, The Westin Princeville Ocean Resort Villas, Sheraton Maui Resort, and The Westin Maui Resort and Spa. Beyond resort operations, Tracy is a strong advocate for education, mentorship, and community engagement. She is particularly passionate about creating pathways for local students to explore careers in hospitality through internships and work-based learning opportunities, supporting arts education as a means of preserving culture and storytelling, and fostering networks that empower women leaders to learn, grow, mentor future generations, and serve their communities. Together, these values reflect her commitment to ensuring Hawai‘i's people, traditions, and communities continue to thrive alongside the visitor industry.