ROSEWOOD

DANIEL SIMON

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD CALISTOGA

Daniel Simon is the Managing Director of Rosewood Calistoga and brings more than three decades of international experience leading iconic hotels and resorts. In his role, he will lead the opening and ongoing operations of Rosewood's highly anticipated Napa Valley estate, bringing a proven record of operational excellence, team development and world-class guest experiences to one of the brand's most significant new destinations.

Born in Sweden, Simon joined Rosewood Hotel Group in 2021 and most recently served as Managing Director of Rosewood Phnom Penh. During his tenure, the hotel achieved significant global recognition. His earlier career spans senior leadership roles across the United States, Southeast Asia, Canada and Australia, including positions with Anantara, W Hotels, Celebrity Cruises and Four Seasons Hotels & Resorts, after serving as a logistics officer in the Swedish Army.

At Rosewood Calistoga, Simon will oversee all aspects of the estate, drawing on his commitment to service excellence and reputation for building and inspiring high-performing teams. His leadership will shape an experience deeply rooted in the land and its community, where nature, terroir, and togetherness create a destination that embodies Rosewood's philosophy.